Word jumble: in and around a puppet theatre

Try it yourself? Another exciting activity from the Puppetry Museum. Above are six things that you would find in and around a puppet theatre. See if you can find out what they are from the jumbled letters, write your answer in the box below.

A picture of an old Dutch children's book is depicted above. Mr Punch is the main character of British folk puppet theatre with hand puppets. Punch, who is a cousin of the traditional Dutch Jan Klaassen, has a pointed nose. Like Jan Klaassen he is a descendant of the Italian Pulcinella. His wife is called Judy. Just as her Dutch cousin Katrijn, she wears a mob cap.

The Puppetry Museum has all sorts of things on display in the field of puppet theatre from the Netherlands and abroad. People are introduced in a playful way to the various puppetry techniques, the origin of characteristic puppet theatre figures, and other phenomena of puppet theatre.

Tip: cut out the picture and glue it on a strong piece of cardboard. Now you have a postcard that you can send away.

Would you like to discover more about folk and mainstream puppet theatre? Make an international journey through the wondrous world of puppet theatre on our Dutch-language website www.poppenspelmuseum.nl/onderwijs. On our four-language website www.poppenspelmuseum.nl and our bilingual websites www.geheugenvannederland.nl/poppenspel2 and www.poppenspelmuseumbibliotheek.nl you will find information about the museum, exhibitions, library and collection. The Dutch-language poppentheater-abc (ABC of Puppetry) gives explanations for a wide range of puppetry and theatre techniques, figures and characters. Illustration adapted from: 'Ik doe het lekker toch'. Author: Nannie Kuiper. Picture: Carl Hollander.

Publisher: Leopold (The Hague, 1984). Text and project concept: Otto van der Mieden © (2010). Have fun. Applause!

Doepak presents some unusual theatre forms, far beyond the confines of our own fantasy! Doepak is a cheerful, educational and colourful Dutch-language newsletter packed with background information about folk and mainstream puppet theatre. In this newsletter and scribblings you can also read about all kinds of activities in the Puppetry Museum such as which exhibitions are on show, whether new books were issued, and how the website is developing. The Dutch verbs of 'doen' (do) and 'pakken' (take) are hidden in the name of the Doepak newsletter. This name was composed for good reason, because you are supposed to 'do' and 'take' things yourself. The name 'Doepak' is also the phonetic transcription in Dutch of the Czech word dupák. A dupák is a rod marionette and trick puppet. Where the dupák swings his arms wide as he twirls around, Doepak embraces the international world of puppetry and related arts with its hints and tips, questions and answers, illustrations and DIY activities. In Slovakian and Hungarian puppet theatre the dupák is called Paprika Jancsi.
