

Pulcinella in illustrations and puppets

Under the name Pulcinella in illustrations and puppets, the Dutch Puppetry Museum has compiled a travelling, bilingual and educative exhibition of a glimpse of the life and times of the Pulcinella character. In addition to the theme, the exhibition also includes vintage and contemporary illustrations, photos, puppets, masks and character figures from the international puppet theatre repertoire.

Exhibition

Layout	The exhibition can be set up at various venues.
Exhibition area	Floor space needed: $\pm 60 \text{ m}^2$.
Pastiche theatre	An informative display and 2 table-top theatres made of lined and painted cardboard.
Dimensions	Expo case: height 86 cm, breadth 70 cm, depth 32 cm.
Concept	The exhibition is created by Otto van der Mieden.
Text	Hetty Paërl and Otto van der Mieden.
Pictures/Photos	Martha Griebler, Hetty Paërl, Ernest Pignon-Ernest, Gianluca Di Matteo, Aat Veldhoen, Peter Vos, Elsje Zwart a.o.

Technical specifications and conditions

Assembly and disassembly time	Approx ten hours.
Lighting	Existing light sources can be used, with added directional spotlighting. It is best if the expo area is darkened. Bright sunlight must be avoided.
Electric power	Earthed sockets: 16 amp.
Rental charge	Per week or part of week: € 1950 (excl. 19% VAT).
Transport charge	Small lorry: € 0.45 per km (excl. parking charges, toll fees and VAT) + other travel costs.
Hotel costs	Hotel at destination – for one or two persons – for the account of the borrower (if necessary during the entire exhibition period).
Insurance cover	From site to site, for the account of the borrower. Value: € 45,000.

Target audience and education

Age range	Children and adults.
Try it yourself?	Two (wooden) puppet theatres invite you to play with a few typical rod puppet characters and shadow figures.
Sound and images	Slide shows, films, sound clips and background music.

Information and documentation

Visitor information	Exhibition texts in English, French and Dutch. A Puppetry Museum treasure hunt and quiz is an exciting way to find out more about matters related to the various types of puppet theatre and folk puppet theatre.
---------------------	---

Documentation

Various Puppetry Museum pamphlets, posters, books, postcards, teacher's lesson pack, paper theatres, stickers, Jumping Jacks and family board games on a puppetry theme.

Printed matter

From € 1.

Information pack Pulcinella: € 17.50.

- Illustration: Pulcinella, a figure from the Italian commedia dell'arte. Martha Griebler (1948-2006), Stockerau/Austria (2003).

Poppenspe(e)lmuseum/Puppetry Museum©

Kerkweg 38 8193 KL Vorchten NL Phone: +31(0)578 - 63 13 29 Fax: +31(0)578 - 56 06 21

www.poppenspelmuseum.nl www.geheugenvannederland.nl/poppenspel2

info@poppenspelmuseum.nl