Dear Puppetry Museum visitor,
We prefer to give all our museum visitors a warm welcome, and therefore kindly request you to plan your visit in advance and in a timely manner.

Unfortunately, we are forced to take these measures due to the currently exorbitantly high energy costs. Please let us know when you plan to visit the museum, so we can ensure our place will be comfortably warm when you arrive.

For Information, please contact us by telephone on +31 578-560239/+31 578 631329 or mobile on +31 648 770 504. Or send an email to info@poppenspelmuseum.nl.

We apologise for the inconvenience and hope to welcome you in the Dutch Puppetry Museum in the near future.

With kind regards,
Otto van der Meden
Director-Conservator
